The modern Marian apparitions: a great design revealing itself little by little the case of Montichiari - Fontanelle

“Enter with full confidence into my Heart, place there your miseries like a donation you would like to give Me and with this act you will find yourself in front of the Fountain of Mercy.”

Continuation of previous number

Last time, while examining and comparing the Christological and Marian apparitions of the last ages with each other, we found out interesting connections between them, without omitting the individuality of each of the supernatural events. It is a continuous connection of various apparitions like a long chain, in which each apparition is a precious link. We also pointed out how these events have several common points. First of all, they all draw the attention to a threatening danger of political, social or religious order or to all the three aspects together. Yet, at the same time, they successively highlight a progressive «design» of the divine pedagogy. It is a celestial intervention, profoundly appealing to the faith of the believers, throwing at the same time a new light on the mystery of the redemption and the role of Mary in it. The apparitions strengthen the faithful in facing and overcoming great difficulties. In this context it is interesting to examine how the apparitions in Montichiari and Fontanelle fit in this frame. So, for which historical reasons these Marian apparitions are intended?. At the same time, with which further enlightenment regarding the mystery of the redemption they are of help to our faith. Let us begin with the first item, examining the first cycle of apparitions. On this, from the first apparition on July 13, 1947, Mary is very clear, «Our Lord is sending me to bring a new Marian devotion (under the title “Rosa Mystica”) to all male and female religious institutions and congregations, and also to secular priests. ... I desire that the 13th of each month be the Marian Day... for the reparation for the offenses committed against Our Lord by consecrated souls whose faults pierce My Heart and the Heart of my Divine Son with three sharp swords...» On October 22 of the same year Mary adds, «I interposed myself as a mediator between men, and in particular for religious souls, and My Divine Son, who being tired of continuously receiving offenses, wanted to exercise His justice». Furthermore, on December 7, She precisifies that while in Fatima she wanted to diffuse the devotion of the consecration to Her Immaculate Heart, «so little known by men», in Bonate she tried to spread it within the Christian family. «Instead, here in Montichiari I wish that the previously mentioned devotion, called “Rosa Mystica”, together with the devotion to my Immaculate Heart, be deepened in the religious institutes, so that religious souls will attract abundant graces from my motherly Heart».

Appearing in Montichiari, Mary clarifies at once that in this case, her intervention regards the ecclesiastical history since she proposes to contribute to limit the very grave «danger», i.e. to repair the continuous offenses by the consecrated, religious and priests against the Lord and hence to Herself.

This motivation surprised the mentioned hierarchy very much and was perhaps precisely one of the main reasons why the apparitions were not well accepted. In fact, it was not yet clear what would happen shortly afterwards. At that moment, there were still numerous vocations. The parishes had many priests and the convents were full of religious; even so much, that more and more seminaries and new houses had to be constructed. It is therefore clear that much faith was needed to take seriously the warning of Mary that the fire of sins was smoldering under the ashes and that in less time it would blaze up, causing great mental pain and sorrow. The Virgin warned that the crisis of the clergy and, more in general, that of the consecrated, would reveal a terrible graveness starting from the '60s and, regrettably, would not have finished until today. It would have made them understand how right Mary was when she invited the consecrated to reawaken their faith by renewing their offer to Jesus through the devotion towards Her. But also all the believers whom She invited to take the problem at heart by offering their own sacrifices and prayers for this purpose.

Hence, starting from the first cycle, the apparitions in Montichiari were clearly the last ring in the above-mentioned chain. In fact, the new motivation connected to this historical moment – the sacerdotal and religious crisis – confirmed a succession of other elements. The connection with the previous apparitions, Fatima and Bonate are even explicitly brought to mind. Also the powerful call to come to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and Her Immaculate Heart, which among others She showed during the apparition in the Dome on December 8. In this call once again She highlighted the pain caused to their Hearts by the sins of men (in this case particularly by the consecrated), and She indicated that a renewed devotion is the real remedy. Furthermore, She emphasized once more like in Fatima – but also like in previous apparitions although in a rather veiled manner – how Her Immaculate Heart plays a very important role in the intervention. Finally, She showed that the devotion to Rosa Mystica is not something different from the fundamental devotion to Jesus and to Mary. It is only another way, a new highlighting to draw closer to the eternal Mystery. «Here in Montichiari I wish to be called “Rosa Mystica”. In addition, “I am the Immaculate Conception. I am Mary of Grace, Mother of My Divine Son Jesus Christ. ...Look at this Heart which loves mankind so very much, though most of them overwhelm it with abuses!» Therefore, «Enter with full confidence into my Heart, place there your miseries like a donation you would like to give Me and with this act you will find yourself in front of the Fountain of Mercy». And this because, as Lucia of Fatima had said, «The confidence in Me is the most secure way to love Jesus». In the end, the third element, connecting Montichiari to the long chain of preceding apparitions: Mary simplifies the practice of this devotion not only by recommending once more the prayer, in particular with the recitation of the Rosary, which She defines as «a great union with my heavenly, motherly Heart that glorifies the Lord, King of the Heaven and of the universe». She also advises, «To accept the little daily crosses and to do one's work in the spirit of penitence». Ultimately, She proposes a «Marian Day» on the 13th of every month and the «Hour of Grace» every year on December 8 at noon through which can be obtained «numerous spiritual and corporal graces».

This all regards the first cycle of apparitions. Next time we will see how the second cycle not only confirms everything, but also adds further elements of continuity and reflection.

WE HAVE RECEIVED

“With this letter I would like to give testimony of the grace I received in Fontanelle on May 23, 2004. I am Silvia B. of Como, 43 years old. Since my birth, I suffer from the syndrome of Klippel Trenaunay at my right leg. This means that it is affected by hypervascularity, making it longer and bigger than the left one.”

Since my birth it therefore caused great pains and festering wounds that never healed. I underwent multiple surgical interventions, but without any significant improvement. My life has been a calvary until May 23, 2004. I would like to underline that before receiving the grace in 2004, doctor G. Quadri from Como had indicated me to go to Fontanelle, but that it would probably be premature. In the meantime, I always prayed to the Virgin and Jesus to make me feel better. One day in April 2004, my mother gave me a book from Fratel Ettore from Milan in which he gave testimony of the healing of Mrs. Oliva Zanotto Sudiro. This book was an invitation from Rosa Mystica to come to Montichiari and Fontanelle. On May 23, somewhat curious, I went to Montichiari with my husband and two daughters, but always with the hope in my heart for a grace. On arrival, I emerged my ankle and leg in the water basin, asking Mother Mary, “Help me, I cannot go on anymore!” In fact, the disease was degenerating and nothing could help. Any movement caused great pain. I always needed to lean my leg against something because the oedema made me suffer and every day became very heavy. I went home with my family and spent the night as usual. However, in a dream I saw the face of Rosa Mystica and a large screen showed me a group of persons lying down in a meadow; they were holding each other’s hand, forming a big star. The following morning I had an appointment with my doctor in Genova. During the consultation, he told me, «Have you seen what a beautiful color your foot got!» The color was in fact brighter; usually it was red-purplish. Turning home, I saw more improvements and I showed it to my mother. Miraculously the leg started to become normal; the oedema diminished without any medicament; I suffered pain but did not need any painkiller. Actually, I had to undergo a surgical intervention, but that was not necessary anymore. I can state that since then the condition of my leg has largely improved, enabling me to lead a quite normal life. Before I had to go to the hospital on regular basis, but since eight years this is not anymore the case. Even the vascular surgeon said, «I had an amputation in mind but never a regression of the disease». This kind of malformation can never be healed; the symptoms can only be alleviated by surgical intervention.

I thank Mary Rosa Mystica for this great help and all the persons who Jesus had chosen to guide me in my way towards Him. Thank you,

Silvia B.

Fourth and last apparition in Fontanelle Feast of the Trasfiguration

From the diary of Pierina:

«My Divine Son Jesus has sent me here again to ask for the Worldwide Union of the Communion of Reparation and this will be October 13». This saintly initiative is to be diffused over the whole world and is to be held for the first time in this year and then to be repeated every year. The abundance of my graces will be assured to those reverend priests and the faithful who put these Eucharistic exercises into practice». «Please try to send some of the wheat to my beloved son Pope Paul VI and tell him that it has been blessed by Our visit. It is wheat from the pope’s homeland of Brescia – Montichiari – and please tell him what my Divine Son Jesus Christ wishes also for Fatima».

«With the remaining wheat, some small bread is to be made and it should be distributed here at the spring on a set date in memory of our coming. This shall be a way of thanksgiving from those who work on the land.»

Remember that the «Worldwide Union of the Communion of Reparation» is always celebrated on the second Sunday of October. Therefore, this year it will fall on Sunday the 14th.
